Off-Ice Contributors

It takes a lot of people to guarantee a successful Red Deer Farmer's bonspiel.

Some of the people every curler should be aware of include Ogilvie's Clothing, who together with the bonspiel committee sponsor the best dressed award. The best comic award is sponsored by Sterling Cleaners and the bonspiel committee.

McLevins Welding sponsor pins, the Alberta Wheat Pool is responsible for the ribbons, Fletchers Fine Foods and Alpha Milk take care of the consolation costume awards, McFarlane Goodacre Motors sponsor the annual chicken dinner.

Amer's Radiator supply all the gum and cigarettes that's available to the participating curlers. The team pictures are done by Foto-Arts, Bud Bourks Men's Shop supply four gift certificates, the tire draw comes from Gundy Tire.

The prize for the largest end is supplied by Gulf Service, Gulf Red Deer Car Wash supply the car wash tickets, Sears supply the four power tools draw and pancake day is sponsored by Agro-Power International, Case Power & Equipment and the media.

New Method

There wasn't any long lineups to sign-up for this year's edition of the Red Deer Farmer's Bonspiel. Instead, curlers were invited in to sign a registration card.

That's what everyone is busy doing here. The first 96 cards make up this year's entry. To find 96 rinks has never been a worry as there's always a waiting list.

Curling Pipes To Get Big Test . . .

The new piping system and floor installed in the Red Deer Curling Rink during the off-season will get it's first big test during the Farmer's Bonspiel. It was a big job ... digging the old floor out and replacing the pipes, sand and flooring. Many of the curling club members pitched in to get the job done in time for the 1980-81 curling season.
