

MG 117 Rotary Club of Red Deer

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of the administrative and operational records created, accumulated, and used by the Rotary Club of Red Deer while providing community service to the Central Alberta area.

Rotary activities were guided by four main committees: Club, Vocation, Community, and International; and these governing themes are apparant in the records themselves. The types of records include the constitution and by-laws, minutes, correspondence, financial statements, membership rosters (1923-1974), committee minutes and reports, newsletters, Black Tie Bingo fundraiser records, fundraiser financial records, Rotary history books, and accounting ledgers.

Series imposed in previous processing applied to accession 2012-087 has been maintained. Series include (A) Printed Materials Relating to Rotary International, (B) Photos, (C) Books of Minutes of the Club, (D) Correspondence, (E) Financial Statements, (F) Miscellaneous Records, (F) Attendance Books, (H) Community Books, (I) The Flash - weekly newsletter, and (J) Rotary Dinners.

The issues in this collection were edited by John Mennie. Taped to the inside cover was a small newspaper clipping, where Mr. Mennie was named "Rotarian of the week". It is stated that despite his physical condition he has an excellent attendance record. Set inside the cover also were four pages, obviously torn from a daily diary. They appear to be the record of the last days of John Mennie. It also appears that is wife added the last entry of the Journal. a. Newspaper clipping b. Pages from daily Journal (4)
