Creator Information

Authority Name Cottingham family

Authority History William Henry Cottingham (1843-1913) was born at Omemee, Victoria County, Ontario, the son of Lieutenant-Colonel William Ward Cottingham, founder of Omemee and a successful miller and trader. He was educated at Upper Canada College and the Military College in Toronto and organized an independent infantry company. For a number of years he participated in his father's business and was a reeve for Omemee. He married Laura Rosa Jones, 1854-1929, daughter Rev. William Henry Jones and Mary Louisa Jones, in 1874. He then pursued a career in the railway business in Chicago and became an agent with the Dominion Lands Office in Winnipeg. In 1882. He was captain of the Kildonan Company during the North-West Rebellion. He transferred to Minnedosa in 1890, Lethbridge about 1894 and finally to Red Deer about 1900. He was active in local affairs helping to establish the Red Deer Gun Club, Central Alberta Pioneers and Old Timers' Association and the Red Deer Social Club and a member of the Masonic Kenilworth Lodge. He was known for his interest in preserving and enhancing hunting and fishing habitats. William and Laura had three children who survived infancy: Maude Isobel (Forrest), 1875-1939; Florence Mary Beatrice, 1878-1969; and William Henry Percival (Percy), 1886-1911.

Maude Cottingham (1875-1939) married Horatio Frederick Forrest in 1898. They had no children. Maude was a member the amateur fancy skating club in Winnipeg and also assisted in training children. After the death of Horatio, Maude travelled frequently to Victoria, British Columbia and Honolulu, Hawaii.

Florence Cottingham (1878-1969) never married and remained at home to care for her parents. She was an amateur actress and accomplished musician.

She became secretary to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands in Edmonton. After the death of her father she travelled the world and made frequent trips to British Columbia, Manitoba and California. This branch of the family ended with her death in 1969.
