Dear Pointer

I have now had time to consider your letter, & others that have reached me.

I am sorry to say that I think I must make a change
at the Farm.

I am unwilling to enter on my reasons. It is enough that as things stand, it clearly will not be acceptable as a home for C.Bs. while on the other hand it is not such a success as to justify the present position going on.

I have offered the charge to Mr. Eversole & he has accepted from July 19. 1909.

I will therefore ask you to notify to everyone on the farm now, that on July 19. you cease to be manager, & I cease to be responsible for any payments to them.

I do not know if Clayton is still with you. If he is he can go to Mr. Eversole & see what Mr. Eversole wishes after July 19th.

I fear I laid upon you a burden too heavy for your experience.

I think that you would have been wiser to report fully to me & await my advice & guidance re this unfortunate difference, which seems to have united the O.B.s around against some steps taken.

I should like to say more, but I have suffered much & do not want to offer advice which you would not take. But I will go as far as this & say: do not always think it well to disregard opinion about, when you move elsewhere. There is talk going on:

I am obliged to you for all you have done: & if I have looked for too much power of managing others, I realize it is my own fault.

However I know that I gave you full support. and the issue alone convinces me that there must be a change. I have had no acts. since Feb 27. last.
which ought not to be.

I have given Mr. Eversole full authority to act in my name.

In conclusion I have to say that Mr. Eversole is in no way responsible for my action, save in accepting my offer.

I am

Yrs sincerely.
