SUBJECT: Swearing In Ceremony

History

The Municipal Government Act provides that the Mayor or Councillor cannot carry out any power, duty or function until that person has taken the official oath prescribed by the Oaths of Office Act.

We have established a tradition of inviting a leading member of our community to administer the Oaths of Office, to remind us of the responsibilities entrusted upon those members elected from our midst. To assist us on this important occasion we invite a Judge from the Provincial Court of Alberta to preside over the swearing in ceremony.

Discussion

Once the newly elected members are sworn in, the meeting will be turned over to the Mayor to proceed with the remaining items on the agenda.

RE: 2004 Organizational Meeting of Council – November 1, 2004
1) Suggested Summary of Councillor Appointments
2) Deputy Mayor Appointments

Please find attached for your consideration a suggested summary of Councillor appointments to various boards, committees and commissions as well as a proposed sequence of Deputy Mayor appointments for the upcoming year.

Councillor Appointments:

The following guidelines were used in determining these recommendations:

1. Your requests and suggestions;
2. Restraints that Councillors may have;
3. To provide for an even workload;
4. To provide you with experience on as many committees during your term as possible;
5. To ensure as much variety for you as possible.

Deputy Mayor Appointments:

These are established on a rotation basis. As there are times when the Deputy Mayor is not available, I recommend that Council authorize the Mayor to appoint an Acting Deputy Mayor during the time of absence.

I anticipate that some of these appointments may not be satisfactory to you and welcome your suggestions for change where necessary. The final decision is yours.

SUBJECT: 2004/2005 Seating Arrangement for Councillors

Traditionally at each Organizational Meeting, the seating arrangement for Councillors is reconsidered.

The seating arrangement is determined by placing the names of the Councillors into a box. The first name drawn is assigned the seat next to the north podium, the next name drawn assigned the seat adjacent thereto, and so on. This process is repeated annually at Council's Organizational Meeting.

The draw is conducted by Legislative & Administrative Services staff prior to the meeting with the new seating arrangement to take effect at the November 1, 2004 Council meeting. Council can alter this arrangement if they choose.

Message from the Chair

Central Alberta Economic Partnership Ltd (CAEP) is a regional alliance of 41 Central Alberta communities. The partnership was organized in 1998 and will soon enter its seventh year of business. Over the past 6 years CAEP has been successful in building ongoing trust with its member communities.

Utilizing shared resources, training and strategies, the area now has the ability to present a broader cross section of the region and economic activities that occur here to potential investors and therefore compete more effectively globally. Annual community training in economic development has strengthened community readiness for new investment attraction.

Central Alberta has always played an important role in Alberta's economy and CAEP has put in place the key building blocks within the central Region. It is positioned to be one of the strongest economic regions in all of North America. The work done through our strategic alliance, especially in the area of community readiness and capacity building will ensure that this tradition continues.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

November 1, 2004

City Clerk's Address

Your Honour, Members of Council, Ladies and Gentlemen. Welcome to the 2004 Organizational Meeting of Red Deer City Council.

I wish to begin by formally congratulating those newly elected. Although you have been chosen individually by the people, your knowledge, experience, discernment and energy now comes together to form one body that will serve this community.

My sincere thanks to those unsuccessful candidates who allowed their names to be placed on the ballot. Red Deer is a great community, exemplified by people in service. It is my hope that their willingness to serve this community will be extended to other areas.

Today we will witness the "Swearing-In" of the newly elected Members of Council who will guide the City. Knowing the joys and challenges of your roles, my prayer for each of you, as mentioned in Galatians, is that you will not become weary in doing good.

We have an established tradition of inviting a leading member of our community to administer the Oaths of Office, to remind us of the responsibilities entrusted upon those members elected from our midst. To assist us on this important occasion we are privileged to have with us His Honour Judge Dave Plosz, from the Provincial Court of Alberta. Thank you Your Honour for being with us.

The Municipal Government Act provides that the Mayor or Councillor cannot carry out any power, duty or function until that person has taken the official oath prescribed by the "Oaths of Office Act."

Therefore, I will ask the newly elected Members of Council to come forward one at a time as their names are called. Each member may place their hand on the Bible provided, which the Mayor will share some history on, or you may raise your right hand as you read the Oath of Office. It should be noted that history is always in the making whenever a new Council is elected.

For her 1 st term as Councillor	-	Tara Veer
For his 1 st term as Councillor	-	Frank Wong

Citizens of Red Deer, your Council for the term 2004 – 2007 has been sworn in and their duties officially commence herewith. The format for tonight's Organizational Meeting will be as follows:

1. The Mayor will assume the Chair,
2. Supper Break
3. Reconvene at 7:00 pm
4. Appointments - During this period, Council will convene to the Committee of the Whole in order to ensure the confidentiality of those individuals who have submitted their names for consideration by Council. Following the Committee of Whole meeting, Council will reconvene in open to appoint the members of each committee by resolution.

The first regular Council meeting will be on Monday, November 8, 2004, with the next meeting being November 22, 2004 and every two weeks thereafter.

I will now have His Worship Mayor Morris Flewwelling assume the Chair.

Councillor Duties Related to Mayor's Office

- The Mayor's Office would like a current biography or résumé of each Councillor, as these are often requested for introductions at functions when a Councillor represents the City (now we tell people to pull them off the website). Let us know your interests and we'll try to match you with appropriate events, when possible.

Deputy Mayor Responsibilities

- During the month you are Deputy Mayor, please arrange your schedule so that you are available to attend any functions the Mayor is unable to attend, i.e.:
 - open new businesses or facilities (ribbon cuttings)
 - bring greetings on behalf of the City to various groups, annual meetings, anniversaries, reunions
 - welcome visitors to conventions, conferences, tournaments
 - attend banquets/receptions as the City's representative
 - participate in various public relations events, e.g., Citizenship Court, Multiple Sclerosis Walk, Cystic Fibrosis Boat Relay
 - attend Awards Nights, e.g., St. John's Ambulance, Lindsay Thurber's Hall of Fame, Red Cross
 - attend opening nights of galleries, plays,

Generally speaking, the Mayor's Office will arrange bookings for the Mayor and Deputy Mayor only. Should neither be able to attend a function, the inviting organization will be given the option of directly contacting other Councillors to request their presence. As you can appreciate, this places an added onus on the organization, as well as other members of Council, and is a situation we would like to avoid as much as possible. Consequently, it is critical that Council members make themselves as available as possible during the term of their appointment as Deputy Mayor—it's a good idea to have another Councillor act as your back up if you know there are certain times you are unavailable—then you could reciprocate when he/she is Deputy. If you are unable to cover one of the Mayor's functions when you are Deputy Mayor, please let the Mayor's Office know immediately so that the inviting organization can choose to contact other Councillors if they wish.

Signing of City Documents

- In the absence of the Mayor, the Mayor's Office will phone you when signing has come in.

Councillor Responsibilities

- At times other than when you are Deputy Mayor, you may be called upon to provide City representation in a public relations capacity by either the Mayor's Office or a community organization.
- Please let us and Legislative & Administrative Service's know when you will be away, i.e., vacation, any standing appointments, any times or days that are difficult for you to get away.

In the Mayor's Office, either Donna Hamel or Mary McGarry will be your contacts, and it won't take you long to get to know the sounds of our lovely voices! Phone: 342-8154

RE: The City of Red Deer's Environmental Initiatives

In 2004, The City of Red Deer developed an Environmental Discussion Paper, which outlines Red Deer's environmental initiatives. The conclusions drawn from this paper's research are intended to supplement and enhance the directions that The City has already affirmed through planning documents such as the REACT Plan, the 2002 – 2005 Strategic Plan and Red Deer Growing Smarter.

As directed by Council in the EDP, and to facilitate the continued building of our environmental leadership, The City is hosting an Open House to highlight its environmental achievements and to hear from the community in preparation for the upcoming review of the Strategic Plan.

You are invited to attend the Open House on the City's Environmental Initiatives where The City's achievements relative to REACT and the EDP will be highlighted:

Hi Norbert,

This is just a reminder that at the Organizational Meeting members of Council suggested that the Disaster Services Committee should meet at least once a year. They also wanted to review the progress on recommendations from the last disaster.

I am assuming that as Emergency Services is the lead in Disaster Services, they would be facilitating this meeting and update on recommendations. There should probably be an orientation about our response process and the councillors role in this.

Subject: Tentative 2005 Budget Meeting Dates

Further to our phone conversation – my rationale in selecting the budget meeting dates for 2005 to start January 18th was that in 2004, the budget meetings started after the first council meeting of the New Year. In 2004, January 12th was the first Council meeting. The 2004 Budget meetings started January 13th.

In 2005, the first Council meeting of the year is January 17th – so I tentatively scheduled the budget meetings to start January 18th.

Hopes this helps to clarify things.

3rd

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Government of British Columbia lists all the Canadian public holidays above as statutory holidays except Easter Monday. They add British Columbia Day.

MANITOBA

Holidays are as for the Federal government.

NEW BRUNSWICK

The Government of New Brunswick lists New Year's Day, Good Friday, New Brunswick Day (the 1st Monday in August, co-inciding with the general date for provincial and civic holidays), Labour Day and Christmas Day as paid holidays.

NEWFOUNDLAND and LABRADOR

The Provincial holiday is Cabot 500 Day (Discovery Day) on June 6th.

In St John's and Harbour Grace, the Regatta Days are also holidays. In St John's, the regatta falls on the first Wednesday in August, weather permitting, but the Harbour Grace regatta date is unknown.

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

The Government of Nunavut and the Northwest Territories Labour Standards and Amendments list the following:-

- Victoria Day is not listed.
- A Civic Holiday is granted on the 1st Monday in August.
- A day is to be fixed by the Governor for observance of the reigning sovereign. This was Friday 9 July in 1999 and, since that date is the 2nd Saturday in July, it is presumed, though without confirmation so far, that the date will be the Friday before the 2nd Saturday in June.
- Remembrance Day (11 November) is a general holiday (i.e. for government workers).

NOVA SCOTIA

The Government of Nova Scotia lists the same official holidays as the Government of Canada except the Provincial holiday and adds

24 December Christmas Eve (1/2 Day) They do not list a provincial holiday but state that "an additional holiday will be taken on a day that, in the Department of Human Resources is recognized as a Provincial holiday in an area in which the employee is employed (for example, in Halifax, Dartmouth, Halifax and Dartmouth Natal Day). If there is no such holiday in the area, the holiday will be taken on the first Monday in August. Both the Halifax and Dartmouth Natal Days fall on the 1st Monday in August.

NUNAVUT

The Government of Nunavut lists exactly the same laws as those of the Northwest Territories.

ONTARIO

Statutory holidays are as the Federal ones.

There are civic holidays on the 1st Monday in August (Simcoe Day) and the 1st Monday in November.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Statutory holidays are as the Federal ones. The 1st Monday in August is an official holiday but is often given by employers/

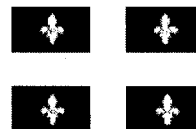

In Charlottetown and east, government employees and a scatter private sector get a holiday on Gold Cup and Saucer parade day, the 1st Monday in August. (August 15 in 1997) -- Gold Cup and Saucer harness race held in the capital each year

In the Summerside area government employees, and again a few private sector, get a holiday on Lobster Carnival parade day, the 1st Monday in August. In '97 hasn't been determined yet.

West of Summerside the August holiday falls on the first Monday in August, the normal Civic holiday.

The only exceptions to these last three would be those working in the health unions in the health agency.

This information was sent by Howard Carr of the Prince Edward Island economic development and tourism department.

QUEBEC

The government of Quebec lists the same official holidays as the Government of Canada and adds the second day of the New Year (January 26). The provincial holiday however, is not in August.

24 June Quebec National Day or St Jean Baptiste Day

SASKATCHEWAN

Saskatchewan day is the 1st Monday in August, in line with the federal holiday.

Re: Culture Board

Dear Mr. Kloss,

Unfortunately I am not able to continue serving on the City's Culture Board.

I will attend and chair the budget approval meeting on Monday September 27, but will leave the Board thereafter.

I trust with all the interest in our community's cultural scene, that finding a volunteer replacement will not be difficult.

Thanks,

Yes I will need names of people to fill the vacancies. Council will have to make the appointments
– This could be done whenever you have the names to put forward.

I will include this Committee to be re-approved by Council on November 1st for another year.

Yes they do need to be reconfirmed. At this point the membership remains the same although for the two seats reserved for Aboriginal people we have vacancies. We are in the throes of trying to recruit through the Aboriginal community for those two names. Scott and I are meeting this week on this. Do you need names for the confirmation?

The Community Housing Advisory Committee was set up as an "Ad Hoc" Committee on November 20, 2000 and has been approved to continue by Council at each Organizational Meeting since then.

I am doing some prep work for the 2004 Organizational Meeting of Council (to be held November 1, 2004) - will the Community Housing Advisory Committee need to be re-approved by Council for another year?

To whom it may concern,

Unfortunately I will not be able to accept my appointment on the City's Culture Board. I was not aware that the meeting times for this Board were during noon hours. My position as a teacher will not permit me to attend any of the scheduled meetings. I am expected to supervise school events during our lunch hour which begins at 11:30.

I must admit I'm a little disappointed about this turn of events as I was eager to volunteer my time to help out my community. I would suggest that meeting time information be communicated in a much clearer fashion on the City Web Page as it indicated that "most" Boards met in the evening.

"What is the time commitment?

Most standing committees meet on a monthly basis. Many meet after 4:30 p.m. Depending on the committee you choose, you may be required to sit on sub-committees of the standing committee. Meetings generally run from one to four hours.

Citizen-at-Large”

Throughout the application and appointment process Council commented that the extremely high caliber of individuals willing to volunteer their expertise to the City outnumbered the positions available.

Although you were not appointed to sit on these committees, on behalf of Council, thank you for your application for membership. Opportunity to sit on City committees occurs annually, however, the Red Deer Volunteer and Information Center is also an excellent resource for people seeking to volunteer. I encourage you to consider future volunteer opportunities within the City.

It is volunteers such as you whose continued endeavors shape and make Red Deer a vibrant community for all to enjoy.
