Creator Information

Authority Name More David

Authority History David John More was born in Aberdeen, Scotland in 1947. His family moved to Canada the following year and eventually Red Deer, Alberta.

In 1968, More enrolled at the Alberta College of Art and graduated with awards and scholarships. He worked as an art history researcher and as a medical graphics artist for the new Faculty of Medicine at the University of Calgary. In 1974, he received a Canada Council grant to create images of coal mining in the Crowsnest Pass of Southern Alberta. The following year, he was invited to become an instructor at the Alberta College of Art. He taught at ACA from 1975 till 1978, when he left teaching to devote full time to his art.

David has collaborated with numerous authors, including humourist Eric Nicol. After several years living on Vancouver Island, David and his wife

Yvette Brideau returned to Red Deer and in 1986 David was invited to be a part-time instructor in the Visual Art Department of Red Deer College. In 1994, David and his wife moved to Benalto west of Red Deer where they have established their studio and garden.
