2012-021	12	82 (3 of 3)	5 Photographs of Environmental Destruction by Recreational ORV use	1997-1998	5 photos : col. 15 x 10.5 cm		5 photographs: 1. Looking SW along Fall Creek - a pocket of uncommon montane or natural grassland within the Foothills Ecoregion, west of Rocky Mr. House. 2. South and east of the Fall Creek bridge is this riparian or wetland valley, newly damaged up by recreational ORV use, summer 1997. 3. & 4. Where the old truck trail (same route as historic horse trail and telegraph line between Prairie Creek and Ram Forks) leaves Fall Creek Valley, it has become widened and very eroded by ORV use. Cross-road erosion prevention channels have been worn away by ORV use. 5. Old seismic road down Fall Creek is a series of deep, ORV-caused mud holes which drain into this fish-bearing stream. In some places there are 5 or 6 alternate routes side-by-side, with much destruction of vegetation and erosion into Fall Creek.
