Creator Information

Authority Name Stanier, Choppy

Authority History Born in Leeds, England in 1909, Francis Thomas Percy Stanier apprenticed in mechanical engineering. Coming to Canada in 1927, he first farmed in Ontario, Saskatchewan, and finally Alberta.

To increase his income, Choppy began working in the oil fields. When he returned to England in 1937 this experience led to a job with the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., and for the next 11 years he worked in Iran. During this time he married Olive Miriam Cam in Leeds, United Kingdom in 1943.

After the Second World War, Choppy and Olive returned to Alberta where they had two sons, Eric and David. Choppy began working for the Eastman Oil Company as an oilfield fisherman, eventually operating his own business in Red Deer, Kingfisher Oilfield Fishing Co. He ran this business from 1954 to the early 1970s. He also attempted a second business, Parkland Investments Ltd.

In addition to his interest in the oil and gas industry, Choppy became involved with the Red Deer Emergency Measures Unit, training as a radiological officer.

Choppy died in Red Deer in 1986.
